Undeclared Eleventh of First and Third Divisions May Decide Cantonment Championship in Bitter Game.

A muddy track confronted the eleven representing the First and Third divisions Saturday in their football battle at the cantonment. The game was scheduled to get under way at 3 o'clock, and was billed to decide in a way the championship of the cantonment. The Third division, from Camp Pike, out of the cantonment, and the First division, from Camp Taylor, Ky.

Back of the Third was a following of special train for the occasion, bent upon lending both mental and financial support to the cause. The First came down alone, but has stirred up plenty of adherents in the city.

Like Overhead Game.

Even though the weather is against the overhead game, it was said that both entries would resort to an aerial attack in an effort to bar the bacon. Capt. Murrill, coach and quarterback of the Third division, has developed a rattling offensive, based mostly upon the forward pass and doesn't intend to let the back to the line of scrimmage.

In their last game, started Turkey day, against Fort Sill, the Third came home in a romp, withdrawing the regulars after the first quarter to save their strength. Otherwise they would have been chased to death in a cross-country run. The dope on the affair is short and snappy—both sides will have a good opposition to date. Nothing has been able to check the driving speed of either of the teams.

But by all the laws of mathematics something must tumble Saturday, unless a deadlock ensues. Nobody can mix and weather with fine foot and drive therefrom a sensible answer. Therefore the unwillingness of any of our charophooters to meet the winner.

Society is scheduled to attend en masse and whether society will employ rowboats or pup tents, has not yet been determined. The game time more will be known of these side details.

The lineup is announced as follows: First Division Position Third Division

EVERY ELEVEN IN CITY HAS PLAYER

ON ALL-STAR TEAM

BY COYLE SHEA.

Every team in Memphis is represented on the News Scimitar's 1919 Mythical All-Memphis football eleven, presented in this issue for commendation or condemnation, as you prefer. In case of the latter kindly mail the printed objections anywhere—except to this office.

The selections are made upon form shown in the season's play, regardless of brilliant work, unobtainable in any one game. And before delving into the details, it is not amiss to state that no prejudice has entered into the selection of any of the candidates.

Several switches from regular position are necessary to produce the best results, because 1919 has been a season of poor line—far below the normal. But in only one instance is it necessary to admit that there is doubt about the final choice.

This lack of complete and absolute decision came to hand at right half-back, where Gibbons of M. U. S. and Schorr of C. H. S. were the leading candidates. Gibbons is a consistent and dependable man to a team, though Gibbons, with an undamaged leg, would enable him to take the place with no squawk in sight.

With this brief preface, we conclude the more intricate details now begin: Berry at End.

Berry, of Normal, stands without a peer as the king of Memphis ends. He is a natural leader, a natural play-faster, reliable and steady. He has been in the line for eight years, and his record is a record. He has been in the line for eight years, and his record is a record.

Palmer, of High, takes position above Rainey, of M. U. S., because he has done better work as a whole, though he has been in the line for eight years, and his record is a record. He has been in the line for eight years, and his record is a record.
